To whom it may concern

On the 2nd to the 12th March 2020 I had the opportunity to go with Peter Malkin to Romania primarily with a view of taking a team from Warwick, particularly from my own church, on a mission to Romania later in the year. As a church we sponsor Peter each month, so I also felt it would also be good to get first-hand experience of the work he is doing out there as well as getting a better idea of what projects we might be able to get involved with when we go out as a missions team.

This trip really afforded me the opportunity to work with a man who is sold out for the Gospel and one whose heart burns to help and support missionaries who are on the front line and support start up ministries get off the ground and grow in terms of vision, resources and people/volunteers. Peter is a great networker and has the ability to pull people to work together, he is also able to see gifting and will endeavour to encourage it and release it. He has such a pastoral heart, and there were many who were leading projects out there who clearly turn to him for leadership guidance and practical support. Peter lives very sacrificially and I was told how he even used his own financial resource to inspire a start-up ministry by bringing their leaders over to England to view hospices and their fundraising activities. This sacrificial act resulted in them starting their own charitable shop and a second hand book shop/coffee house to help raise funding for their work. Peter has great visionary gifting and one of the current projects he is working on is to help support and release people with disabilities to take their place in the Kingdom of God and allow the Kingdom of God to be released through them, a project which without doubt will only go from strength to strength. This new work will certainly need Peter's networking skills but also the vision to get it off the ground and it will also need our help to sustain it. Sadly, at this moment in time children and adults with disabilities in Romania are completely overlooked and ostracised. I believe by partnering with Peter and his work out there it is going to bring about effective change. During the 10 day trip I met quite a few of the people with disabilities that Peter is working with. Each of them has such a lot to offer and I heard so many amazing testimonies of how they found Jesus and what difference He has made in their lives. At this moment in time their testimonies remain untold because they need a platform of acceptance and release. Let's help Peter to provide one!!!!

Unequivocally Peter Malkin and his work in Romania has our support and backing, it is an honourable ministry and an honourable and noble work and Peter Malkin is an honourable man.
